Sunday Mass; there has been a great deal of positive feedback about the 10.15am Sunday Mass. Father Desmond had intended returning to the two Masses on a Sunday but because of the feedback the parish will continue with the one Mass on Sunday morning for the foreseeable future. If problems arise having just the one Mass on a Sunday, e.g. lack of parking, too busy in the Church, the situation will be reviewed. Therefore, in the meantime, we shall continue with one Mass at 10.15am on Sunday but will continue to review the situation in the weeks ahead.

Tuesday 15th August is the Solemnity of The Assumption of The Blessed Virgin Mary and is a Holyday of Obligation. Masses are as follows:-

Monday 14th August, Vigil Mass at 7.00pm

Tuesday 15th August Masses at 9.30am & 7.00pm

SSVP - Next weekend, 19/20 August, the proceeds from our normal St. Vincent De Paul retiring collection will be in aid of the parish of St. Joseph's in Mendulo, Malawi. Our parish SSVP Conference has been in correspondence with St. Joseph's since summer 2016, and all monies collected will be sent to parish priests Fr. Focus and Fr. Cleofas to aid their work with fellow Christians in rural Malawi. There will also be a small display in the porch highlighting the work of the Catholic community in Mendulo. Thank you in advance for your generosity and support.
