Tuesday 8th August is the Memorial of St. Dominic and the parish remembers St. Dominic's Primary School on this special day.

Father John moves on this Tuesday to St. Ambrose, Baillieston. The parish is most grateful to Father John for his wonderful presence among us for the past three weeks and he will be very much missed, especially his inspiring and powerful homilies and reflections. We hope that Father John will visit us again in the future and we assure Father John of our thoughts and prayers when he returns to Rome to continue his Doctoral studies.

SCIAF has recently launched a Summer Appeal with a focus on projects they are working on in India with adults and children who have been trafficked. Should any parishioner wish to donate to SCIAF's Summer Appeal please visit www.sciaf.org.uk or call 0141 364 5555

A very kind parishioner has anonymously and very generously donated many items of new schoolwear. The schoolwear is displayed on the table in the porch and please do have a look and perhaps give a small donation if you are taking an item. All monies raised will go to Mary's Meals. Any clothes remaining will be sent to Mary's Meals in September. Many sincere thanks to the parishioner who donated these items.
